Police News

Police report vehicles damaged

Four incidents of criminal damage to property were reported to police Saturday and are under investigation.

In the first incident, Louise Barten of Flowers and Gifts by Molly Culbert, 702 W. Main, reported someone painted the words "West Side" on a company supply trailer.

The other three incidents involve slashed or punctured tires.

Jason D. Pickett, 702 E. Washington, reported someone punctured the left rear tire of his work van, while Joseph B. Means, 724 E. Main, said someone sliced the passenger side and front tires of his 1980 Dodge.

Also, Byron Yanders, 626 E. Washington, reported the side left rear tire of his 1991 Ford van was sliced.

Four people turned themselves in to police Thursday.

Timothy J. Farney, 20, of 201 S. Fifth St., Ambia, turned himself in at 1:30 p.m. Thursday.

Farney, wanted on a traffic warrant, was released on $100 cash bond.

Robert G. Glenn, 20, of 311 W. Maple, turned himself in at 2:15 p.m.

Glenn was wanted on two warrants and was released on $300 cash bond for each warrant.

Stephen R. Couch, 33, of 328 E. Fifth St., Rankin, turned himself in at 3 p.m.

Couch, wanted on two traffic warrants, was taken to the Public Safety Building in Danville in lieu of bond.

Two people were arrested at 8:32 p.m. Thursday on loitering charges.

Marco Palomo, 17, of 521 N. Seventh Ave., and a 15-year-old boy were arrested and released on notices to appear.

An unidentified resident of apartments at 824 Wyman reported Thursday that someone had kicked in a door at the complex.

Police said the door, trim and lock were damaged but the person did not enter the apartment.

A pair of prescription sunglasses was founde Saturday on East Honeywell. The owner may identify and claim them at the police station.

Linda S. Watson, no age listed, of 800 W. Main, was arrested at 8:36 p.m. Saturday, charged with battery. S h e
